Note: I hope that you have found this article of interest, these pages are all one article. It was written in the style use around the turn of the century. It contained may errors, they were not corrected, I hope that I did not add any myself. It contained so may members names that I had to copy it.

I would like to point out that the reason that they kept mentioning old ward numbers. The City of Pittsburgh annexed Allegheny City in 1906, and it changed the ward numbers. They must have used the ward numbers for telling people what part of the city they lived in.
C. McAllister.
